

MuslimVille Ramadan Competition 2008

WHAT TO DO?

You have to be active as a Muslim boy or girl throughout the month of Ramadan and participate in the following programs:

Ramadan Activities Challenge

You have to keep track of all your activities during Ramadan and submit the Ramadan Activity report at the end of Ramadan.

Muslim Kids Ramadan Fundraising

Ramadan is a month of caring and sharing. We hope that you come forward to do something for the poor and needy in the month of Ramadan. Your collected money will be used for sponsoring orphans. [THIS IS NOT A FUNDRAISING DRIVE FOR MUSLIMVILLE]

Smart-Cool Week

Spend a week in Ramadan as Smart-Cool Week. The aim of the program is to focus on creativity, productivity and learning. Another aim of the program is to reduce the amount of time spent in front of the TV and playing video games.

Do some Islamic projects and submit them online. You can use Microsoft paint to make a digital art work; scan your hand drawing or painting; write an article, song or poem and send it via e-mail to info@muslimville.com.

Islamic Knowledge Competition

The more you learn about Islam in the month of Ramadan, the more reward you can expect from Allah. Learn more about Islam (see the study notes for the Competition) and prepare for a verbal and a written test on the day of the competition.

What are the reports to be submitted?

As a participant you have to let us know what you did during the month of Ramadan. So we ask you to submit following reports.

Ramadan Activities Challenge Report: 10 marks for maintaining and submitting + 15 marks based on activities for a total of 25

Smart-Cool Week Report: 10 marks for participating and submitting + 15 marks based on projects for a total of 25

'This Ramadan Sponsor an Orphan' Report: 25 marks for participating and submitting

Ramadan study evaluation sheet: 10 marks for submitting & 40 marks based on answers for a total of 100 marks

Prizes and Evaluation

To encourage the participants, prizes will be given out based on the evaluation of the quality of participation in the different programs.

Final evaluation

Final evaluation will be done after the Ramadan on Sunday October 26th through a 'Final Quiz' based on the Ramadan Study Notes. This Quiz will be conducted either written, verbal over phone or through Online.
