Guidelines for parents/ teachers/guardians

Ramadan is the best time to practice and learn more about Islam. Encourage your child to be more active as a Muslim boy/girl. Simply keep track of all the Islamic Activities during the month of Ramadan.

Points are given for different activities during Ramadan. Use the guideline to determine how many points your child earns for an activity. For example if they performed all 5 salats (prayers), donated 1 dollar in mosque and memorized 1 Ayat in a day, you should mark a total number of points: 25 + 10 + 15 = 45 for that day. Count the overall total number of points at the end of the Ramadan. Give gifts to encourage them.

If you send this report to MuslimVille, we will send a 'Certificate of Appreciation' and a 'Participation Prize' for MuslimVille Ramadan Competition 2008 (mail to: MuslimVille, 789 Crawford St, Toronto, ON M6G 3K4)
